The estimated time for DEQ to process a correctly completed application form is 35 days from the date of publication of the public notice or the date DEQ receives your application, which ever is later. The Department decision is not final unless 15 days have elapsed from the date of permit issuance and there is no request for a hearing before the Board of Environmental Review. Please refer to the Administrative Rules of Montana 17.8.615.

Instructions to Applicants for Landfill Open Burning Permit Application

The notice below must be published no earlier than 10 days prior to the date your application will be submitted to the Department, and no later than 10 days following the date of submittal. The notice is to be published once in the legal notice section of a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected. Questions regarding an appropriate newspaper should be addressed to the Air, Energy & Mining Division. Any fees associated with publication of this notice are the responsibility of the permit applicant. A copy of the published notice and the affidavit of publication must be submitted to DEQ before the application can be processed.

This notice is required by ARM Title 17, Chapter 8, Subchapter 6, Rule 17.8.612 Conditional Air Quality Open Burning Permits.

Any comments on the application must be submitted to the Department within 20 days after publication of this notice or filing of the application, whichever is later. The Department's decision to approve or deny an application for a conditional open burning permit may be reviewed by the Board of Environmental Review (Board) according to the following procedure:
When the Department approves or denies the application for a conditional open burning permit under this section, a person who is jointly or severally adversely affected by the Department's decision may request, within 15 days after the Department renders its decision, upon affidavit setting forth the grounds therefor, a hearing before the Board. A hearing shall be held under the provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedures Act.
The Department's decision on the application is not final unless 15 days have elapsed and there is no request for a hearing under this section. The filing of a request for a hearing postpones the effective date of the Department's decision until the conclusion of the hearing and issuance of a final decision by the Board.
