

Petroleum Tank Release Compensation Board

STATE OF MONTANA

P.O. Box 200902 • Helena, MT 59620-0902 • (406) 444-9710

• <http://deq.mt.gov/DEQAdmin/pet>

Labor Codes & Duties

Code	Title	Duties
A01004	Word Processor	Typing & editing reports.
A01007	Draftsperson	Draws maps and prepares figures for reports.
A01009	Drafter CAD	Uses CAD to prepare maps and figures for reports.
A01014	Staff Engineer/ Geologist/Scientist	Assists project staff in report writing, or researching and compiling background information for the project staff persons. Supervises on-site activities.
A01015	Project Engineer/ Geologist/Scientist/ Manager	Manages project, schedules work, develops work plans, and prepares reports as required for the remediation of a site.
A01016	Senior Engineer/ Geologist/Scientist/ Manager	Oversees project staff person, reviews reports, and assists with complicated remediation site management. Fieldwork, preparations of reports or work plans are typically not recommended for reimbursement.
A01017	Principal Engineer/ Geologist/Scientist	Oversees complicated projects or work plans if they would require designs which need review by a professional engineer. This individual is not typically on-site doing basic fieldwork.
A01029	Industrial Hygienist	Human health impact evaluations for complex site assessment & cleanup plans.
A01031	General Laborer	Non-technical labor related activities.
A01032	Land Surveyor – Registered	Initial survey of groundwater monitoring well elevations.
A01040	Technician I	Assists senior personnel on-site and assists with report preparation; requires supervision.
A01045	Technician II	Conducts field sampling without supervision. Assists senior personnel with fieldwork and assists with report preparation.
A01050	Technician III (Sr)	Directs entry and staff level technicians. Conducts field sampling without supervision. May act as site coordinator for basic fieldwork report and work plan preparation.