Volume IV

VOLUME IV
SUPPLEMENTAL EIS
RESPONSES TO COMMENTS

This volume contains the public comments and the agencies' responses to those comments on the supplemental EIS and revised draft MPDES permit for the proposed Rock Creek project; Volume III contains the comments and responses on the supplemental EIS. Please review the following suggestions for using this section.

There are four tables to facilitate your access to this volume. The first table, SEIS-1, lists the categories and codes for the comments; for example Geology, GEO 102, Tailings Facility Stability. The second table, Table SEIS-2, lists the comments related to the various petitions ("P"), questionnaires (Q), and form letters ("F") that were received. Numerous people signed or sent in these types of documents. If you signed or submitted one of these types of documents you will find a "P," "Q," or "F" included with the list of comments after your name in Table SEIS-3. You will need to go to the top of Table SEIS-2 to identify which comments relate to the document(s) so listed. The third table, Table SEIS-3, lists the commentors in alphabetical order and provides an ID number for each person or organization; due to a change in KNF computer systems and programs the ID numbers for commentors on the draft and supplemental EISs are different. A commentor is anyone who submitted written comments in a personal letter, a form letter, a postcard, or a petition, and/or presented testimony at a hearing on the draft EIS and/or the draft MPDES permit. For each person or organization, there is a listing of the comment numbers where that person's or organization's comments can be found; for example 33-102 means the 33rd comment in the category section GEO-102, Tailings Facility Stability. Federal, state, local and tribal agency comment ID numbers are highlighted in the listings. When reviewing the comments, you can locate your ID number to see which of your comments was included. The fourth table, Table SEIS-4, lists the commentors by ID number. This table is useful when you see an ID number after a comment and wonder who made that comment. You could then go to the third table and see what other comments were made by the same person or agency. Copies of all letters, postcards, and petitions are on file at agency offices and are available for review and can be obtained for the cost of copying and postage.

The agencies are not required to respond to every comment made by every person. However, "all substantive comments received on the draft statement (or summaries thereof where the response has been exceptionally voluminous), should be attached to the final statement whether or not the comment is thought to merit individual discussion by the agency in the text of the statement" (40 CFR 1503.5(b)) Under state regulations, a final EIS must include "responses to substantive comments received on the draft EIS (ARM 17.4.619(1)). If the comment resulted in changes to the EIS text, then it is usually so stated in the response, but not all responses require that the text in the EIS be modified or supplemented. Persons who commented on the document, but whose comments were not considered substantive will have the phrase "Thank you for your comment" after their names rather than a listing of various comments (see Table SEIS-2). This includes those persons who merely expressed an opinion for or against the project, stated simple editorial comments, or restated portions of the EIS text without asking a specific comment.

Where possible, similar comments are grouped together or have been consolidated into a single comment (therefore, not all comments may be verbatim) and provided with a single response. Some grouped comments may list two or more pages of related comments from numerous people before the response is provided. The more unique and detailed comments usually have their own responses. Often there were overlaps between categories for some comments; each comment was placed in the most appropriate category or split up between several. If you are interested in certain issues, you may need to look at comments and responses in several categories. For example, acid rock drainage is primarily covered in GEO 104, Geochemistry, but might also be covered in WTR 300-310 sections, FISH 600-601 sections, T&E 501, bull trout, and possibly NEPA 800-802 sections and GEN 1600 depending upon what the focus of the comment was.
