

UBMC Virtual Tour Guide

For questions about the UBMC Project, contact DEQ Construction Manager Shellie Haaland at (406)431-1401, or DEQ Project Manager David Bowers (406)444-6335
For assistance with the UBMC Virtual Tour, contact Kim Wells at (406)444-6467

Select these icons to adjust the Zoom level of the map.

Select the "UBMC Home Page" to view the UBMC Web Page.

Select the "UBMC Home Page" to view the DEQ Web Page.

Select this icon to expand the image without text.

Select this icon to view the image without text.

You can select <> to view the previous or next image

You can use your mouse to move over the numbered points and select an image.

Mike Horse Mine Area

The Mike Horse Mine, a lead and zinc mine, was the largest operation within the UBMC, producing approximately 385,000 tons of ore. There were many other smaller operations within the UBMC, and a large copper-molybdenum deposit still exists. For additional information, see Mines In the UBMC.

You can view the images by selecting them individually
You can select <> to move images.

Some images will have hyperlinks to other UBMC Story Maps.