

Pressure Vacuum Breaker Assembly

The Pressure Vacuum Breaker (PVB) is a backflow prevention assembly that can be utilized under constant pressure and with downstream valves. These assemblies may be used under constant pressure but do not protect against backpressure conditions. The assembly must be at least 12 inches higher than any downstream piping.

A diagram of a pressure vacuum breaker assembly is below:

